

2- Complete the sentences with the correct form of preposition of time (at, on, in).

MEETING

1. We will meet _____ 9 AM to discuss the project timeline.
2. You won't be able to finish the task _____ a week; it requires more time.
3. The event won't take place _____ Monday; it has been postponed.
4. _____ which week will the training session begins?
5. We won't have a meeting _____ midnight; it's too late.
6. The deadline for the report is _____ Friday.
7. _____ what time is the project kickoff meeting?
8. The task won't be completed _____ a day; it requires more time.
9. _____ which day is the project presentation scheduled?
10. The team will work on the project _____ 10 am in their conference room.

3- Complete the sentences with the correct connector (and, but, or).

1. The team will work on coding, _____ we also need to test the software.
2. You need to research the demand _____ create a project plan.
3. We need to analyze the requirements, _____ we shouldn't rush into implementation.
4. Are you available to work on the coding tasks, _____ do you have other commitments?
5. You can't submit the report tomorrow, _____ it will be marked as late.
6. Are you proficient in both programming languages _____ database management?
7. Should we focus on optimizing performance _____ enhancing user experience in this iteration?
8. The project deadline is approaching, _____ we won't compromise on quality.
9. You can choose to complete the task independently _____ collaborate with a teammate.
10. The project requires both technical expertise _____ effective communication skills.