

4- Now that you know the difference between gerund and infinitive, discuss how testing contributes to the overall quality of software products.

Homework

How is cybersecurity important during the creation of applications? How does it affect the process of developing the application?

