

4- Now it is time to share a little bit about your job working in a team. Talk about yours and your team responsibilities during a project.

A large rectangular area with horizontal lines for writing, framed by a dark border. In the bottom right corner, there is an illustration of four people of different heights standing on a series of four dark blue rectangular blocks of increasing height. They are holding hands and climbing the blocks, with the tallest person on the highest block holding a small red flag.

Homework

Every now and then we need to do job interviews and we need to be prepared to do it.

Share how you prepare yourself to do one, and what are the things you need to succeed in the interview.
