

2- Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the superlative adjective in parentheses.

1. Mark is the _____ (busy) software developer in the office. He always has multiple projects to handle simultaneously.
2. The team agrees that the new programming language is the _____ (difficult) one they've ever learned.
3. Laura's code is always the _____ (efficient) in terms of speed and performance.
4. The software release last month was the _____ (smooth) deployment we've ever had.
5. Sarah is known for her exceptional problem-solving skills; she's definitely the _____ (creative) developer on the team.
6. The project manager praised Alex for making the _____ (complete) project plan.
7. Our company's software is considered one of the _____ (reliable) on the market.
8. The coffee machine in the break room makes the _____ (strong) coffee I've ever tasted.
9. The team decided that this project was the _____ (important) they've worked on this year.
10. During the company's hackathon, John developed the _____ (innovative) app that won first place.

