

4- Now that you learned about passive voice, think about a project that you made in a team. Describe what the team had done using the passive voice.

Ex: The new IT project was initiated by the team last month.

Homework

When doing a project, we need to test to make sure everything is running smoothly. What do you do to check the progress and guarantee that the application is working?

