

4- Be prepared for a job interview is not an easy job. Go back to the exercises number 2 and 3 and share with the class the advice that you never used before but will for now on. If you have any other advice, don't forget to say it.

Homework

Now that you know how to prepare for a job interview, you nice to do your best perform at the interview to get the job.

For the next class, prepare your script for a mock interview.

