

4- A good way to get to know someone you've just met is to make small talk. Match the following questions and answers.

1. Is this your first trip to Canada?
2. How long have you been working for XYZ Solutions?
3. How was your trip?
4. Have you been living in Madrid for a long time?
5. So, what do you do when you're not working?
6. The weather has been intense lately, hasn't it?
7. Do you know any good places to eat around here?
8. Have you been to any other countries on business?

- a. I do a lot of running. I'm actually in training for a marathon next year.
- b. Only about a year or so. I'm still learning the ropes really.
- c. No. I came here with my family on holiday a long time ago. I see there's been a lot of expansion in Montreal since then, but it's still a really beautiful place.
- d. Yeah, if you can handle spicy food, there's a Mexican place that does the best chilli I've tasted outside of Mexico.
- e. Yes, it's been very unpredictable. But I read that there's going to be a heatwave next week.
- f. It was quite busy on the plane and I nearly missed my connection in Amsterdam. But otherwise, I didn't have any real difficulties.
- g. I've lived here for most of my life, although I did spend a couple of years living and working in South Africa, but I found the work quite monotonous.
- h. I have a lot of clients in Australia, so I've been there several times. They took me on an outing to the Outback one time which was gorgeous. I really want to go back there.
