3- Read the conversation below between two software developers, John and Lisa. Fill in the gaps with the appropriate form of the verb in the Simple Present tense.

John: Hey, Lisa! How (1) _____ (you/to be) doing in your new project?

Lisa: Hi, John! I (2) _____ (to be) working on a web application. It (3) _____ (have) some cool features.

John: That sounds interesting! What programming language (4) _____ (you/to be) using for the project?

Lisa: We (5) _____ (use) Python and JavaScript. They (6) _____ (be) perfect for our requirements.

John: Great! How often (7) _____ (you/have) team meetings?

Lisa: We (8) _____ (have) team meetings twice a week. It (9) _____ (help) us stay aligned and discuss any challenges.

John: I agree. Collaboration (10) _____ (play) a crucial role in software development.

Lisa: Definitely! By the way, (11) _____ (you/have) attend any coding conferences recently?

John: Yes, I (12) _____. Last month, I attended a conference on machine learning.

Lisa: That's awesome! I (13) _____ (to be) planning to attend a frontend development conference next month.

John: Sounds like a great opportunity to learn and network.