2- Choose the correct preposition ('to' or 'for') to complete each sentence.

1. She submitted her project proposal to/for review.

2. He signed up to/for a coding workshop next week.

3. They developed a new feature to/for improving user experience.

4. He applied to/for several companies to find a new job.

5. They went to the conference to/for learn about the latest technologies.

6. They prepared a presentation to/for the client meeting.

7. She dedicated hours to/for debugging the code.

8. He applied to/for a software developer position at the tech company.

9. They conducted user testing to/for gathering feedback.

10. She wrote a detailed report to/for her manager's approval.