3- Rewrite the Sentences in the preview exercise using the Infinitive:

1. The development team plans implementing rigorous testing procedures to ensure software quality.

_____

2. Our manager always appreciates the effort the team puts into conducting code reviews regularly.

_____

3. It's crucial for programmers paying attention to detail when writing complex algorithms.

_____

4. The IT department is considering adopting automated testing tools for better efficiency.

_____

5. The project manager suggested testing the software before presenting it to the client.

_____

6. The team is dedicated to refining new features before the official release.

_____

7. Developers should prioritize writing unit tests to catch errors early in the development process.

_____

8. The company encourages its employees following best coding practices to maintain high standards.

_____

9. After every sprint, the team discusses ways of improving the software development process.

_____

10. The quality assurance team is responsible for identifying potential issues in the software.

_____

DevSpeak Academy